

DEA Museum Lecture Series

South of the Border:

Joint U.S./Mexico Drug Law Enforcement and Mexican Drug Trafficking

The DEA Museum is pleased to present the Spring 2009 Lecture Series featuring joint operations between the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration and Mexico. Please join us for the first lecture of our series:

THE DRUG TRAFFICKING SITUATION IN MEXICO

Wednesday, April 1st, 10:00 a.m.

DEA HQ Auditorium

Please enter through the museum entrance on Hayes Street

Recent events along both sides of the Southwest Border have sparked a growing public debate about the drug trafficking violence in Mexico spilling across the US border. Keynote speaker David Gaddis, the DEA Regional Director for the North & Central Americas Region, will offer new insights on the current situation along the border and how DEA is involved.

Sign Language Interpretation will be provided.
